

Entertainment

Telephone: 01934 422555

email: lucy.hunt@archant.co.uk or chrissie.simpson@archant.co.uk

▲ Bev Priest and Pete Tyrell.

Peggy's big gamble

GANGSTERS and molls abound in Worle Operatic and Dramatic Society's new production.

42nd Street, billed as 'a show within a show', tells the story of aspiring actress Peggy Sawyer (played by Natalie Kessell) who is catapulted into the lead role when Dorothy Brock (Bev Priest), an established Broadway star, breaks her ankle. A gambling financier, prima donnas and hormonal youngsters are also thrown into the mix.

A backdrop of familiar songs including the title track, Lullaby of Broadway, and We're in the Money will take the audiences down memory lane.

The cast includes the majority of the society who will tap dance their way through the show's opening number.

The show is being staged at The Playhouse, Weston, from tomorrow (Thurs) until Saturday. The curtain goes up at 7.30pm, and there is also a Saturday matinee at 2.30pm.

Tickets, priced £9, are available from the box office on 01934 645544.