WESTON Operatic and Dramatic Society members will be teaching their audiences to speak "proper" when they bring My Fair Lady to The Playhouse, Weston. The wonderful musical, filled with great songs and dance routines, is a charming love story set at the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century.

The popular show, based on George Bernard Shaw's play Pygmalion, follows the attempts of Professor Henry Higgins to transform a Cockney flower girl, Eliza Doolittle, into a society lady simply by teaching her to speak correctly. There are plenty of light-hearted moments provided by lovable characters, including the moment where Eliza 'got it' and just what does 'The Rain in Spain' have to do with speaking English.

My Fair Lady features an array of memorable songs such as 'Wouldn't It Be Lovely?', 'I Could Have Danced All Night', 'On the Street Where You Live', 'Get Up To The Church On Time and Why Can't The English?'

Weston Operatic Society has developed steadily over the past 30 years and the company has performed all the major, well-known shows.

My Fair Lady is being staged at The Playhouse today (Fri) and tomorrow (Sat).

All shows start at 7.30pm except the Saturday matinee, which starts at 2.30pm.

Tickets are available from the box office on 01934 645544 or the website at www.theplayhouse.co.uk
