

Jesus Christ Superstar 'fantastic'

THE Worle Operatic and Drama Society (WODS) has just wrapped up a series of performances of Jesus Christ Superstar at Weston's Playhouse - and the popular musical has received five-star reviews on Streetlife.

Jay H posted on the site, and said: "We have just got in from seeing an amazing piece of musical theatre.

"This evening's portrayal was the best I have ever seen.

"The overall staging and production was brilliant."

JM agreed, and said: "If you didn't go you missed a fabulous show.

"I first saw it in the West End many years ago, and I think the WODS equalled London's effort."

Ally I said: "A Rock Opera type format is a little different from Andrew Lloyd Webber's later work."

But Ally I agreed the performance was of a high standard, and added: "Worle and Weston both do really good musical productions."
