Organisers 'absolutely blown away' by success of beach race

LIAM JONES

Weston's seafront was packed with tens of thousands of racing fans enjoying the thrills and spills of the annual Beach Race at the weekend.

The 35th HydroGarden Weston Beach Race saw 700,000 people gather to witness fierce competition in various classes, including the gruelling three-hour adult solo category won by 20-year-old Todd Kellett from Somerset.

TV personality and avid motorbike fan Guy Martin also competed at the event.

Gareth Hockey, director of event organiser RHL Activities, said: "I'm absolutely blown away - this year's HydroGarden Weston Beach Race is one of the best we've ever done.

"I can't wait to come back and do it again. "Thanks has to go to everyone involved, all of our top riders and of course Guy Martin."
