See who survived 'the snap' at Odeon

Avengers: Endgame will be at the Odeon this week.

Superhero fans will rejoice this week with the hotly-anticipated arrival of a new Avengers film showing at the Odeon.

Following the shock ending of Avengers: Infinity War, Marvel Cinematic Universe brings fans Avengers: Endgame.

The star-studded cast including Robert Downey Jr, Chris Evans, Mark Ruffalo, Chris Hemsworth and Scarlett Johansson return in the aftermath of 'the snap' which wiped out half of mankind.

Surviving members of the Avengers and their allies return to Earth to reverse the damage caused by Thanos in Infinity War.

The film follows the success of Captain Marvel, in which Brie Larson's Carol Danvers is introduced to the story.

Danvers joins the Avengers, along with Ant-Man (Paul Rudd), who was last seen in the Quantum Realm, where he was abandoned when his friends disappeared in 'the snap'.

Am dram group tackles Shakespeare's Twelfth Night

The Worle Operatic and Dramatic Society will perform Twelfth Night.

A story of unrequited love, lost souls, mistaken identity, lust and laughter will amuse audiences at one of the town's smallest theatres until Saturday.

Worle Operatic and Dramatic Society (WODS) is launching its 2019 season with the Shakespearean comedy

Twelfth Night.

Talented members will be playing unforgettable characters including Sir Toby Belch, Malvolio and Feste as they head for the land of Illyria for.

WODS is thrilled to be returning with its second community project after the runaway success of last year's A Midsummer

Nights Dream at the Tropicana's Theatre In The Bay.

The performance is taking place at the Theatre In The Hut, off Milton Avenue, at 7.30pm, with a matinee on Saturday.

Tickets, priced £8-10, are available at www.worleoperatic.co.uk/tickets
